

Festive season 2021 delivery cut-off dates

Below are the festive season cut-off dates for different destinations. Please note that these are set by our delivery partners, and we cannot 100% guarantee that by ordering by the cut-off date, you will receive your parcel in time for Christmas as any delays are not within our control.

We therefore advise you to order as early as possible. If you can't find your country on the list or have any questions, please email: customerservice@theschooloflife.com

For those living near London, England, we will have a pop up shop running from December 6th - December 19th where you can purchase and take home items directly from the store.
